SUMMER CAMPS

2008

Camp Philosophy

Our mission is to provide students with a tennis experience that maximizes their performance and increases their enjoyment of the game. To accomplish this, we provide a high-energy learning environment that is safe, positive, and most of all, fun!

Times

Activities will begin promptly at 9:00am each day and conclude at 12:00pm. Participants may be dropped off as early as 8:30am each morning, except the first day in which registration opens at 8:20am.

Ages & Ability Levels

-The skills camps held in June are open to boys and girls ages 6-13. These camps are geared towards beginner & intermediate players.

-The training camp is open to all potential tournament & high-school players ages 14-18. It is geared towards intermediate & advanced players. This camp is open to both individuals and teams.

Cost

The cost is $100 per person/week. Each camper will receive a Methodist University Tennis Camp T-shirt. If you would like to bring a group of four or more players, please call for discount information.

Inclement Weather

In the case of rain, please call 630-7315 & listen to the voice message for updated information. If a session is cancelled, it will be made-up on that Friday morning.

Registration

A deposit of $40.00 and the registration application are due at least 7days prior to the camp. The remaining balance may be paid at registration on the first day of the camp, which will be held from 8:20-9:00am at the tennis courts.

Facilities

The Methodist University Tennis Center has eight hard courts with a central gazebo area. It is located on the east-end of our campus adjacent to the softball field & golf course.

Important Information

Water will be available for campers. Please feel free to pack a snack and/or a drink for your child if you prefer.
