It's hard to believe, but graduation is just around the corner. On May 7, many of you will walk across the stage to receive your well-deserved diplomas signifying the beginning of a new and wonderful chapter in your lives.

Congratulations for a job well done! However, for those of you who are continuing your MU Journey here at Methodist University, summer is a fantastic time to attend classes. The good news is we have expanded the number of online course offerings for the summer to better support your needs as well as refocused course offerings on both main campus and Fort Bragg.

Registration for summer term and the fall terms is open now. Register before classes are full!

If you are interested in attending summer classes on Fort Bragg, the courses listed below are offered. All courses are held at the Bragg Training and Education Center, F Wing.

Military Tuition Assistance

Recently, we have noticed that a number of students have failed to properly withdraw from their classes in GoArmyEd. Although you may let the University/Bragg Office staff know that you are dropping a class, you must still drop the class in the GoArmyEd portal. Otherwise, the Army will charge you for the course. The bottom line is, if you decide to drop a course, please coordinate with the Bragg Office staff so we can explain options and better assist you in the process.
