

ABOUT GENERAL H. HUGH SHELTON

General H. Hugh Shelton was born in Tarboro, N.C., and received a bachelor's degree from North Carolina State University.

He spent the next 38 years in a variety of command and staff positions in the United States, Vietnam, the Middle East, and Haiti. He served two combat tours in Vietnam, participated in the liberation of Kuwait during Operation Desert Shield/Storm, and led the Joint Task Force that restored democracy in Haiti.

General Shelton became the 14th Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff on Oct. 1, 1997, and served two two-year terms, retiring Sept. 30, 2011. Throughout his tenure as chairman, U.S. forces were in high demand and participated in numerous joint operations around the globe.

Currently, General Shelton is the Executive Director of the General Hugh Shelton Leadership Center at North Carolina State University and serves as Director of the Hugh and Carolyn Shelton Military Neurotrauma Foundation in Washington, D.C.

Methodist University, through the Lura S. Tally Center for Leadership Development, seeks to prepare students for effective leadership by empowering them with the knowledge, values, skills, and experiences necessary to achieve positive change in community life and in the workplace.

Linda and Ralph Huff are major sponsors of the Shelton Challenge.

GENERAL SHELTON Leadership Challenge

Methodist University
Tally Leadership Center

A leadership camp for high school students

July 15-20, 2018

GENERAL INFORMATION

The General Shelton Leadership Challenge is a one-week summer residential experience for rising freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors in high school that takes place on the campus of Methodist University in Fayetteville, N.C. The Shelton Challenge is designed to help students expand their knowledge and skills of what it takes to be an effective leader. General Shelton's cornerstones of values-based leadership – honesty, integrity, compassion, diversity, and social responsibility – are the foundations of the experience. The core curriculum focuses on leadership roles and accountability, team building, leadership styles and situations, social responsibility, integrity as a leader, public speaking, changing behaviors, and goal setting.
