

The Lura S. Tally Center for Leadership Development and the MU Journey present

Maj. Gen. Rodney O. Anderson

U.S. Army, Retired

“Values-Based Leadership”

Monday, Oct. 7 | 11 a.m.
Huff Concert Hall

Retired Maj. Gen. Rodney O. Anderson is a native of Elloree, S.C., and he graduated from Wofford College in Spartanburg, S.C.

Gen. Anderson served 33 years in the U.S. Army as a Field Artilleryman and General Officer. He completed combat deployments in Grenada, Saudi Arabia, and Afghanistan. His military travels include visits to more than 30 nations.

He is President and CEO of LDR Consulting, LLC, providing strategic planning, military transition, and leader development services.

METHODIST UNIVERSITY

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT:

Dr. Andrew Ziegler
Director, Tally Leadership Center
aziegler@methodist.edu
910.630.7488